CHARTER CONTRACT, CONTRACT, EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2017

MARCH 28, 2017; 9:30 A.M.

Timeline

On July 1, 2013, the Commission executed the inaugural one-year State Public Charter School Contract (“Charter Contract”) with each existing Hawaii charter schools, effective for the 2013-14 school year. Under that initial Charter Contract, no school faced revocation or non-renewal for poor performance.

On July 1, 2014, the Commission executed the second Charter Contract with all schools, which had a term of three years, beginning July 1, 2014, and ending June 30, 2017.

On November 19, 2015, the Commission adopted the charter contract renewal criteria at its General Business Meeting. Click here for further details.

In the past few months, the Commission has conducted various charter school stakeholder meetings and provided online feedback forms soliciting comments on the proposed Academic, Financial and Organizational performance frameworks and Contract boilerplate and exhibits (for contract beginning July 1, 2014, and ending June 30, 2017). See below for the draft Performance Frameworks presented to charter school stakeholders and public comments and responses.

On March 9, 2017, the Commission approved the Academic Performance Framework for the Charter Contract, effective July 1, 2017, at its General Business Meeting.

On March 23, 2017, the Commission approved the Financial and Organizational Performance Frameworks.

On April 13, 2017, the Commission is scheduled to receive a presentation and take possible action on the Charter Contract, effective July 1, 2017.
